PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Product Manager, Platform & Developer Experience

Bandwidth, Inc. | Jan. 2025-Present

- Owned end-to-end strategy for Bandwidth Build, a self-serve consumer platform, from beta through GA, winning 350+ organic signups in 90 days post-launch with zero marketing spend
- Validated pricing, onboarding, and activation decisions through a phased beta-to-GA rollout ahead of general release, converting 8% of self-serve trial users to paying customers and surfacing 25 additional qualified sales leads (~$75K/month pipeline)
- Redesigned onboarding and billing UX to cut time-to-value from a 2-month enterprise sales cycle to a 5-minute self-serve signup
- Partnered with Data Engineering to unify revenue, usage, and signup data across four systems into a single Snowflake → Sigma pipeline, establishing KPI reporting for a net-new product line
- Designed and launched an MCP server and CLI enabling AI agents to interact with Bandwidth APIs, positioning the platform for AI-driven discovery and agentic workflows
- Directed developer education for a 250-engineer org and external customers, including workshops and webinars on AI integrations and API design
